Co-Ed Squirts

Marlins (New Berlin Police), Astros (New Berlin Fire)- Jake DeFrance was playing pitcher and made a great back hand stop of a ground ball and threw it to first. Adam Siegel fielded a hard hit ground ball and threw it all the way across the diamond to Austin Bartell who caught the throw. The Astros put on a hitting display in the first inning of the year and hit around.

Girls Minis

Padres, Giants (Dr. Michael Bubon) - Padres first game went very well. The following girls had all one hit a piece to get on base: Addison Sagot (scored one run), Faith Loberg, Lauren Pagac, Allysa (Boo) Stuckart, Madalyn Mainwood (1-RBI), Allysa Gull, and Erin Knight. In the field outs were made by Kelly Ann Sotiros with a put-out at first and another out with a through from Addison Sagot from the pitch position. With the first game behind us I expect it will only get better from here.

Brewers, Mets (North Shore Bank)- From the Mets, great 1st base out by Kyra Mushal and runs in by Sophis Knox and Sarah Howard. From the Brewers, great 2nd base out by Emma Hluchuk and super fielding by Katie Dowling and Kenna Petery. Go Girl Power!!

Boys Minors

Indians (New Berlin Police) 18, Tigers (New Berlin Fire) - The Indians started the season with blazing bats. Nearly every player managed to reach base and score a run in the season opener. The offensive highlights included a 4-4 performance from Steven Zabrowski, Matt Obradovich 3-3, Cameron Jukabowski 3-3, and Kevin Walbrun 3-3. Josh Kryszewski worked through a first inning injury following a blow to the finger from a swing at an inside pitch, but finished the game performing well at catcher, batting 3-4 and scoring 3 times in the game. Steven Zaborowski and Justice Dodd did well in their first outing from the mound. The defensive highlight of the game was a 6-4 double play following a line drive caught by short stop Steven Zaborowski and a force out at second base with a throw to Jason Hoffmann.

White Sox 4, Royals 2 - Solid pitching and defense were on display by both teams in the season opener. The White Sox balanced hitting attack provided all the run support that was needed as Tyler John recorded eight strikeouts in three shutout innings. Sox pitchers Jacob Cole and Wil Polczynski looked in mid-season form as the team held off late inning rallies by the Royals.

Girls Minors

Indians 13, Royals 2- The Royals played a solid game for their opener of the season. Josie Hammes and Brittany Samorjski faired well at pitching. Rose Anderson and Karen Dong did a great job as catchers. Three Royals went 2 for 2 tonight including Maddie Sprengel, who scored the Royals first run of the season, Shannon Hegman who scored the second run, and Kayleigh May. Good fielding skills and plays were shown off by Erin Ashenhurst, Alexia Smits, Maggie Majewski, Miranda Campagna, and Isabella Seifert. The team has the first game jitters out of the way and is looking forward to next week's matchup!

Cubs (US Financial Services) 6, Marlins 10- Both teams came out and played a very good defensive game in the first two innings. The bats started warming up in the top of third inning when the Marlin's hit the ball hard and took a 8 to 1 lead, but the Cubs battled back with 4 runs that inning closing the 3rd inning with the Marlin's 8 - Cubs 5. After that the defense took control again keeping the runs to low numbers. Both of the Marlin's pitchers, Hanna Giammarco and Kasie Erenyi did a great job in their debut game and Angels (HM Product Solutions) 8, Blue Jays 21- Behind some timely hitting and solid defense, the Blue Jays (Team#8) turned a third inning, one run deficit, into a 21 to 8 triumph over the visiting Angels (Team #1), Monday night at Valley View Park. The Blue Jays got two hits each from Jack Mielke, Nick Balles and Sangwoo Park. While AJ Bruno, Ross Spadaro, and Ethan Raposa each scored three runs apiece. Sanghyun Park turned in the defensive gem of the night by turning an unassisted double play in the second inning.
