

NBAA Game Report
Week #2 2008
Baseball/Softball

Boys Minors

Red Sox 3, Indians (New Berlin Police) 9- The Indians improved their record to 2-0 on a chilly night at Malone Park. The game started with an early pitcher's duel and the Indians found themselves down 2-1 after 3 innings despite strong pitching from Stephen Zaborowski. Justice Cameron tossed 3 scoreless innings allowing the Indian's offense time to get warmed up. Offensive highlights included a 3-4 performance at the plate from Justice Cameron with two doubles. Stephen Zabrowshi, Matt Obradovich, and Daniel June all batted 3-4 in the game. Matt Obradovich closed the game from the mound allowing just one run in his first inning of work this season.

Girls Minors

Rockies 4, Marlins 13- The Rockies pitcher did a great job in the first inning and struck out 3 within the first 6 batters. Both teams fielded the ball well in the second inning, keeping the scoring to only 1 to 1. The Marlin girls got hot bats in the top of third inning and took an 11 to 1 lead. Then it was the Rockies who came alive in the 4th inning with 3 runs but that was not enough to overcome the Marlin's who won 13 to 4 over the Rockies. Both of the Marlin's pitchers, Katie Steib and Rachel Bonin did a great job in their first time at the mound. Kasey Lukach, Alyssa Roadt, Kasie Erenyi, and Katherine Goodspeed all hit doubles and Hanna Giammarco and Alyssa Rawski each has 2 RBI's for the Marlin's.

Tigers 3, Royals 16- The Royals played a great second game, improving our hitting and fielding from the week before! Our third graders Shannon Hegemen, Maddie Sprengel, and Kayleigh May rose to the occasion pitching for the Royals recording four strikeouts. The Royals also executed their first double play with a line shot caught by Shannon Hegemen who then threw it to Josie Hammes on 1st to seal the deal.

Boys Juniors

Athletics (Stone Fire Pizza) 13, Blue Jays 14- The Blue Jays pounded out 19 hits and scored 14 runs, en route to a 14-13 cliff hanger win against the visiting Athletics, in a Boy's Juniors baseball game at Valley View Park, on Wednesday, May 28th. The Blue Jays got three hits apiece from Jack Mielke, Sanghyun Park, and Jack Roberts. But the performance of the night may have come from relief pitcher, Chris Haines, who came in and got the save when he recorded three straight outs, after the Athletics scored eight runs in the top of the seventh, to erase a nine run deficit, to just one run. The Blue Jays are now 2-0 this season.
