

NBAA Game Report
Week #5
Baseball/Softball

Kindergarten

Reds vs New Berlin Fire Astros - The Co-ed squirts game between the Reds and the Astros, sponsored was a hard fought battle with both teams making many great defensive plays. The Astros were led by first baseman Will Olstinske who made several great catches at first base and third baseman Cal Enderby who made a heads up play to tag a runner trying to advance to third. The team also did a great job of making contact hitting several balls into the outfield. It was a great team effort

Girls Minors

Marlins 7, Braves 2 - The Reds took an early lead with 1 run in each of the first two innings. Pitcher Rachel Rasmussen came into her own in the 3rd inning with 2 strikeouts. Both teams played good defense in the 3rd and 4th inning, not allowing any runs. The Marlins, Kasie Ereyne chased down a fly ball and at first base, Rachel Bonin made a double play with a tag out on another player who went to second. In the fifth inning, the Marlins worked hard to bring in 3 runs to take the lead. Pitcher Hanna Giammarco kept the Reds from scoring in later innings and had 4 strikeouts to cinch the victory for the Marlins. Ellie Hausmann and Rachel Rasmussen hit triples in the last two inning respectively to give the Marlins a 7 to 2 Victory.