Girls Minis

Cubs, Astros: The Astros kicked off their 2009 Girls Mini campaign against the Cubs. It was a close, well played game by both teams. The Astros appeared to be in mid-season form offensively as the entire line-up batted in 2 out of 3 innings. Kayla Kane went 3 for 3 including a smash off the pitcher Coach Ron. Rose Reichert and Sydney Travers were among the many Astros to reach bases multiple times. The team was solid defensively as well. Great plays were made by Sela Proctor, Isabella Doucas, and Maddie Schultz to name a few. The coaches were extremely proud of the girls' effort in this game.

Girls Minors

Mariners 5, Rays 6: The Rays played a solid game for their opener of the season. Skylar Berens and Emily Siegel did an excellent job at pitching. Good fielding skills and plays were shown by Kaitlin Tadlock at first base. At the start of the 4th inning the Rays were down 5 to 2. Sally Dettlaff kick started the team with a 2 run RBI, the team scoring 2 additional runs, came from behind to be victorious over the Mariners.

Padres 3, Phillies 5: Samantha Lundin pitched two scoreless innings in her Girls Minors debut. Charolette Ropas crushed a pitch to left center field for a 2 run home run.

Boys Juniors

Angels 16, Brewers 8: It was a well played game on both sides of the ball. Alex Hebron, Danny Leitinger, and Derek Wieczorek lead the way for the Angels with 2 hits a piece.

Girls Juniors

Cubs 10, Royals 4: The Girls Juniors season kicked off with a battle between the Royals and Cubs, the Royals jumped out to a 3-0 lead only to see the Cubs storm back behind the strong pitching performances of Taylor Thompson and Ali Boldt. Emily Szydowski had the big hit with a two run double Jamie Ehlert, Michaela Hamilton and Caralia Ferrante all had two RBI's. The defense was lead by Julia Piotrowski and Selena Deer who both made web gem type plays. Domenica Nudi, Alyssa Kaiser, Kerri Lichtfuss all scored runs to lead the Cubs to a 10-4 victory.
