Co-Ed Squirts

Braves, Padres: The Padres started off the season with a fun game against the Braves. Both teams had some good hits and defensive plays in the field. Many of the Padres hits came without using the tee and a few even caught the pitcher (coach) off-guard!

Diamondbacks, Padres: The Padres continued their season with an exciting game against the Diamondbacks. The Padres batted through the lineup a couple innings and several players made good stops on grounders in the infield.

Girls Minis

Braves, Astros: The Astros played their second game of the year on May 26th and ran into a tough opponent in the Braves. Sela Proctor, Emily Diodati, Jessica Kemstra, and Rebecca Jegier were among the group of players with multiple hits. The defensive highlight was a great unassisted play at 3rd base by Rose Reichert. The girls continue to work hard and are excited for the next game.

Boys Juniors

Angels 7, Mets 6: It was a well played game on both sides of the ball, with the Angels winning the game in the bottom of the 7th inning. Leading the way for the Angels were Dan Western went 2 for 2 with a walk, Clayton Nelson and John Dougherty went 2 for 3 with Jack hitting the game winning hit.

Urban Ghost Riders Cubs 9, Tigers 5: Week two showcased a battle between the Cubs and Tigers. The Cubs jumped out to a 6-1 lead behind Madison Pagoria, Taylor Thompson and Selena Deer who all drove in two runs. Domenica Nudi, Emily Szydlowski, Michaela Hamilton and Jamie Ehlert help the Cubs by getting on base a combined 8 times. The Cubs received a pitching gem by the combined duo of Ali Bolt and Julia Piotrowski who have up a total of 5 runs on 6 hits. The Tigers mounted a late comeback but were halted by the Cubs when Alyssa Keiser turned a Tiger single into a 9-3-2 play at the plate with Keri Lichtfuss who stood in with a Tiger base runner barreling down on her for the out at the plate. In the end the Cubs held on for the 9-5 victory.
