

NBAA Game Report
Week #5
Saturday January 13, 2007

Boys Minors 3rd

Sonics 24, NB Police 17: The Sonics played their best game of the year and beat the New Berlin Police 24-17. Jake Rastas played an outstanding overall game and contributed 6 points. Jack Sirek scored 10 points, while Ryan Majinski and Matt Cavanaugh chipped in with 4 points apiece. Alexey Bickelhaupt played aggressive defense. Daniel Roback, Zachary Kasun, and Andy Schrom also contributed to the strong team effort.

Westphal Photography 28, Drydon Equipment 24: Andy Stachnik took charge in the last period and scored the last four points to lead Westphal Photography to the hard fought victory. Stachnik and Jordan Canady led the team with eight points apiece, and Nick Schaefer chipped in with six points and gave the team a much needed spark in the second half. Ethan Konda added four points and had numerous steals

Girls Minors 3rd

Magic 11, New Berlin Fire 6: The Magic hung on to the end to pull out a victory over the Fire. The offensive attack was led by Katie Sotiros, Mary Bieser, and Brittany Samorajski. Chloe Janich added a nice free throw. Strong defensive play was administered by Rachel Beilfuss, Vasi Katris, Julia Catalano, Nicole Dorshorst, and Josie Hammes. Both teams hustled and gave it their all in this close contest.

Boys Minors 4th

Bucks 34, Clippers 8: Tony Balistrieri & Brandon Topolski both had 8 pts, Joe Jeruc, Nicholas Birenbaum: 6 points, other pts by Isacc Peasley, Matthew Kizaric, Derek Kochnowicz, Tony Balistrieri led in rebounds with 11, followed by Nicholas with 8, Topolski with 6 rebounds, Varun Lahoti with 3 rebounds and Bryan Olson with one.

Girls Juniors

Tri City National Bank 34, New Berlin 32: In a closely matched game, the Tri City National's beat the New Berlin Police 34 to 32 in overtime. Allison Weitekamp and Alyssa Moy were the leading scorers for Tri City. Marie Bartels also made a critical goal. Kia Richards, Stephanie Seymour, Mariah Kastner, Cassie Majinski and Madeline Muchenberger played tough defense and provided excellent rebounding. Both teams played hard and entertained the lively crowd.