

NBAA Game Report
Week #5 Basketball
Saturday January 17, 2009

Boys Minors

Tri City Bank Bobcats 21, New Berlin Fire Rockets 15: Greg Jackson led the way for the Bobcats with 10 points and Lucas Makowski added 7 more. It was a tough fought nip and tuck game til Lucas made 2 shots to ice the game midway through the last period.

Supersonics 10, Wizards 38: The Wizards played a strong defensive game and every member of the team contributed one or more baskets to turn back the Super Sonics 38-10. Adam Lancaster, Bryce Miller, Erik Petersen, Jack VonRueden, Jon Kryszewski, Joseph Jicha, Kyle Kraninger and Tyler Torosian played incredibly well together.

Raptors 24, Timberwolves 1: The Raptors tough defense kept a pesky Timberwolves team at bay for the whole game. Zach Engsborg was key to grab the rebounds, he put a couple back to score 4 points. Ben Schaefer scored in double figures. Ben and teammate Matt Schwemmer kept the T-wolves on their heels with fast-paced play. Dominick Battistini and Alex Weiner added baskets for the Raptors. Ryan Buchholz, Jordan Korom, Kevin Trecek and Cooper Waring all contributed to the stingy defense.

Girls Minors 3rd

Smith Barney Bulls 16, New Berlin Fire Pistons 17: A balanced offensive effort and continued defensive effort propelled the Pistons over the Bulls.
