

NBAA Game Report
Week #7
Saturday January 27, 2007

Boys Minors 3rd

Westphal Photography 26, Hawks 14: Westphal Photography outscored the Hawks 20-2 in the first half en route to the victory over the previously undefeated Hawks. Nick Schaefer led the team with 7 points and Ethan Kondo added 6. Also scoring were Jordan Canady (4), Jacob Schroeder (4), Andy Stachnik (3), and Davis Bull (2). Jordan Canady played outstanding defense and had numerous steals. Lucas Gates, Joey Brisk, and Trey Fredrickson also played very well.

Buck 35, New Berlin Eagles 16: The Bucks built a 25-2 halftime lead that proved too much for the New Berlin Eagles to overcome as the Bucks win 35-16. Tyler John had a very strong game on both sides of the court. Adam Campbell led the Bucks scoring with 12 points, Trenton Kelly added 10, Quinn Farrell (6), Stephen Zaborowski (4) and Stephen Kraninger (3).

Sonics 31, Mike Shannon A.G. Edwards & Sons' 12: The Sonics defense was outstanding throughout the entire game. Jack Sirek led the Sonics with 13 points. Jake Rastas had another strong overall game and contributed 10 points. Matt Cavanaugh had 4 points, while Ryan Majinski and Alexey Bickelhaupt each scored 2 points apiece. Andy Schrom, Austin Whittlow, Daniel Roback, and Zachary Kasun played tough defensively.

Girls Minors 3rd

Magic 25, Westphal Photography 8: The Magic came out strong with 8 points in the opening period. Mary Bieser led all scorers with 12 points. Chloe Janich, Katie Sotiros, Rachel Beilfuss, Vasi Katris, and Julia Catalano also contributed to the scoring effort. Nichole Dorshorst and Brittany Samorajaski combined for six steals and numerous rebounds to lead the defense. A strong effort and good sportsmanship were displayed by both the Magic and Westphal Photography in this mid-season contest.

New Berlin Fire 18, New Berlin Police 6: The New Berlin Fire burned their first win of the season as they singed the New Berlin Police 18 to 6. Riley Farrell led the Fire with 10 points followed by Jessica Ferguson with 4, and Elyse Hoeg and Meaghan Schmitt each with two. Kayla Moran led the team in assists. The Fire's defensive stand was fueled by Jordyn Rolli's 12 steals, Techla Jorgenson's 7 forced jump balls and 3 blocks, and Mollie Borchert's all around floor play which earned her multiple marks in each of the Fire's four defensive categories. Morgan Lynch, playing her best game of the year, completed the strong defensive effort with 2 steals and 2 rebounds.

NBAA Game Report
Week #7
Saturday January 27, 2007

Girls Juniors

Tri City National Bank 32, Trail Blazers 11: Cassie Majinski, Marie Bartels, Kia Richards, Mariah Kastner, Allison Weitekamp and Alyssa Moy shared the scoring for Tri City. Lauren Lichtenhahn, Stephanie Seymour and Madeline Muchenberger provided excellent rebounding. With improved passing and tough defense the Tri City National's beat the Trail Blazers 32 to 11.

Girls Majors

Magic 25, Hornets 20: In a game involving two very evenly matched teams, The Magic was able to hold onto a slim lead and win the contest, 25-20. Both teams demonstrated their skills on offense and defense in the game. The Magic were led by the scoring of Rachel Weigand, Emily Torpy and Eddye Tyler, decisive picks were set by Emily Bobke, and Emily Young, and solid defense of Abbie Gillett, Molly Barbeau and Kelly Osvatic.