

NBAA Game Report
Week #4
Saturday January 6, 2007

Boys Minors 3rd

Westphal Photography 20, Peterson Auto Body 6: Jacob Schroeder led Westphal Photography with 6 points and tremendous hustle. Nick Schaefer contributed 4 points and a couple blocked shots as well as doing a great job rebounding. Davis Bull scored 4 points and played aggressively, and Andy Stachnik played a great game defensively.

Bucks 35, Sonics 11: Aggressive team defense paved the way for the Bucks 35-11 win over the Sonics on Saturday. Adam Neunenschwander had a strong all-around game. Outstanding help defense by Trenton Kelly and Tyler John generated numerous steals. Jared Wenzel and Quinn Farrell led the team rebounding. Offensively, Stephen Zaborowski had a break-out game with 8 points. Other scoring was added by Stephen Kraninger (10), Adam Campbell (8), Quinn Farrell (5) and Trenton Kelly (4).

Boys Minors 4th

Wizards 22, Trail Blazers 13: The Wizards won their 4th game of the season with good all around play from all players. Scoring baskets were Michael Barth, Peter Diamantopoulos, Nick Potrzebowski, Jarod Clark, Eray Erman and Payton Quirk. Playing solid defense were Sanghyun Park, Quinn Thompson and Joe Tadych.

Girls Juniors

Tri City National Bank 32, Westphal Photography 15: In a fast paced game, the Tri City National's Kia Richards and Alyssa Moy lead scoring with ten points each. Allison Weitekamp followed up with eight points off rebounds. Cassie Majinski and Madeline Muchenberger also each made a goal. Stephanie Seymour, Lauren Lichtenhahn, Marie Bartels, and Mariah Kastner played tough defense and with excellent rebounding. The Tri City National Bank team beat Westphal Photography 32 to 15.

New Berlin Police 26, New Berlin Eagles 16: In a fast paced game, the Tri City National's Kia Richards and Alyssa Moy lead scoring with ten points each. Allison Weitekamp followed up with eight points off rebounds. Cassie Majinski and Madeline Muchenberger also each made a goal. Stephanie Seymour, Lauren Lichtenhahn, Marie Bartels, and Mariah Kastner played tough defense and with excellent rebounding. The Tri City National Bank team beat Westphal Photography 32 to 15.