

NBAA Game Report
Saturday December 13, 2008

Boys Minors

Raptors 16, Knicks 12: A tenacious defense that only allowed 2 points in the second half fueled a comeback for the Raptors after being down by 2 at halftime. A key break-away basket by Matt Schwemmer and the unique style of defense by Cooper Waring were keys to the win. Zach Engsborg, Stephen Halusan, Ben Schaeffer and Kevin Trecek all added baskets in the win.

Sonics 19, 76ers 11: The Sonics won the season opener 19-11 with solid defense, strong rebounding, and good passing. Derek Holstein got the team off to an early lead with four quick points. Tyler Sidders' all around hustle led the charge for the rest of the way while Luc Powell did a good job of stepping right in with the team and showed no signs of having missed most of training camp.

Cavaliers (New Berlin Police) 16, Bobcats (Tri City Bank) 27: Game between team #9 bobcats (tri city bank sponsor) and team #6 Cavaliers (New Berlin Police sponsor) in the Boys Minors division ended 27 to 16 in favor of the Bobcats. Boden Saikie led the way for the bobcats with 10 points and Greg Jackson added 9 more. Matt Lalor's defensive hustle and Boden Saikie's offense helped the Bobcats pull away midway through the game.

Bucks 18, Wizards 13: The Wizards opened the season with a hard fought loss to the Bucks. The Bucks pulled away in the 7th period on the strength of their outside shooting with 6 unanswered points. Bryce Miller led the Wizards with 8 points. Kyle Kraninger had 2 points, Adam Lancaster 2 points and Jack Von Rueden 1 point.

Girls Minors 3rd

Pistons (New Berlin Fire) 30, Cavaliers (New Berlin Police) 24: Lauren Kunz, Anna Lang, Sammie Lundin, Riley McLeod, and Lauren Meyers led the scoring. With contributions made by all on both sides of the court.

Boys Juniors

Celtics 21, Suns (New Berlin Fire) 30: The Suns defeated the Celtics in a game highlighted by a strong defensive effort by the whole Suns team. Ethan Raposa led all scorers with 12 points and Lucas Gates added 8 points in the second half, which helped to hold off a surging Celtic team. Sanghyun Park added 4 points and pulled down key rebounds to help seal the victory for the Suns.