

NBAA Game Report
Week #3
Saturday December 16, 2006

Boys Minors 3rd

Westphal Photography 35, Spurs 4: Jordan Canady led Westphal Photography with 10 points and played an outstanding all-around game. Jacob Schroeder added 6 points and Nick Schaefer 5. Davis Bull did a great job rebounding. The entire team played ferocious defense and displayed great teamwork with their unselfish play.

Sonics 28, New Berlin Eagles 16: Jack Sirek scored 22 points for the Sonics. Matt Cavanaugh, Jake Rastas and Daniel Roback each scored 2 points. Andy Schrom rebounded well. The Sonics stingy defense held the Eagles scoreless over the last 3 periods.

Bucks 27, Rockets 19: The Bucks played a strong all-around game to beat the Rockets 27-19 on Saturday. Stephen Kraninger and Adam Campbell directed the Bucks offense and led the ferocious team defense. Trenton Kelly had his best game of the season including a team high nine rebounds. Quinn Farrell led the Bucks scoring, while Stephen Kraninger, Tyler John, Adam Campbell, Trenton Kelly, Jared Wenzel & Stephen Zabrowski poured in additional points to support the effort.

Boys Minors 4th

Wizards 28, New Berlin Eagles 10: The Wizards continued their winning ways over a tough New Berlin Eagles team. Scoring for the Wizards were Michael Barth, Jarod Clark, Nick Potrzebowski and Peter Diamantopoulos. Contributing with good hustle were Payton Quirk, Joe Tadych, Sanghyun Park and Quinn Thompson.

Boys Juniors

Raptors 35, New Berlin Eagles 23: Playing a great game Jason Loch, Tyler DuCharme, and Nathniel Henrichs led the way in scoring. Zac Nordstrom, Joey Casper, and Alec Weitzer played very well handling the ball and shooting. David Liu and Kyle Kick played great on defense shutting down the other team to two shots in one period. Sam Hider played well on defense and scored his first points on the last shot of the game

NBAA Game Report
Week #3
Saturday December 16, 2006

Girls Juniors

Tri City National Bank 18, New Berlin Eagles 9: The Tri City National Bank's Stephanie Seymour, Lauren Lichtenhahn, Marie Bartels, Cassie Majinski and Mariah Kastner played tough defense. Allison Weitekamp scored off of an offensive rebound and Kia Richards with a baseline jump shot. With free throws from Alyssa Moy and Madeline Muchenberger, the Tri City National Bank team beat the Eagles 18 to 9. The top scorer was Alyssa Moy with thirteen points.

New Berlin Police 25, Nuggets 23: The New Berlin Police extended their record to 3-0 with a victory over the Nuggets. The final score was Police 25, Nuggets 23. In a very evenly matched game, both teams used the press to limit the effectiveness of the other team's offense. The Police found a way to pull ahead in the 2nd OT on some clutch shooting from Holly Plazak and Taylor Rickard. The Nuggets also had some great shooting and clutch free throws at the end of the game to force the first OT. Jenna Waligorski, Nicole Pandl and Sasha Stojanovich all were stand outs in the final periods. Colleen Haack, Nessa Stojanovich, and Ericka Ward played well at both ends of the floor, and were keys to the victory.

New Berlin Eagles 34, New Berlin Fire 13: the New Berlin Eagles extended their record to 2-1 with a 34-14 win on Saturday. The Eagles were led in scoring by Lora Daskalski and Cheyenne Pasdera, who scored 10 points a piece and Eileen Herbers, who scored 8 points. Taylor Ehrmann, Rachel Schmitz, and Bobbi Jo Winter also scored 2 points each. The girls played a masterful defensive game holding their opponent to 7 points until the final quarter.

Boys Majors

Nuggets 47, Lakers 36: The Nuggets; with outstanding guard defensive play from David Bertz and Theo Sessler, dominated this game from the onset. Stuart Van Pelt, Jordan McKeon and Kyle Goldsmith each scored in double figures with 10, 11 and 12 points respectively to lead the way. The undefeated Nuggets had clutch rebounding from Nicholas Memmel and Anthony Ludwig to help secure the victory. This was a truly a team effort win.