New Berlin Eagles 24, Trail Blazers 12: The New Berlin Eagles started their season with a 24 to 12 win on Saturday. Cheyenne Pasdera led the way in scoring with 10 points, Lora Daskalski had 6 points, Eileen Herbers had 4 points, and Rachel Schmitz and Emily Stanislawski each had 2 points. The Eagles played a strong defensive game, lead by Taylor Ehrmann, Bobbi Jo Winter, and Isabella Seefeld. Congratulations Eagles.

Tri City National Bank 18, Nuggets 15: The Tri City National Bank's Alyssa Moy and Madeline Muchenberger opened the game with rebound put-back points in the first period. Tough defense by Marie Bartels, Kia Richards and Cassie Majinski held the Nuggets to four points in the first half. Conversely, the Nuggets held the Nationals to 4 points in the second half. However, again due to tough defense and a blocked shot by Tri City's Mariah Kastner, the Tri City National Bank team held on to it's half-time 14-4 lead and beat the Nuggets 18 to 15. Top scores were Alyssa Moy with six and Marie Bartels and Madeline Muchenberger with four each.

New Berlin Police 20, New Berlin Eagles 19: The New Berlin Police were victorious in a great season opener. The Police and the Eagles were very evenly matched, and the game went back and forth until the final horn. The final score was Police 20, Eagles 19. The Police had a very balanced attack. Strong guard play by Taylor Rickard, Holly Plazak, Nicole Pandl, and Halle Luksich kept the Police in the game the whole way. Brittany Krzyzanowski, Jenna Waligorski, and Nessa Stojanovich were outstanding on defense and under the boards. Colleen Haack and Sasha Stojanovich were major contributors with strong play at the center position. The Police are now 1-0.
