

NBAA Game Report
Week #2
Saturday December 9, 2006

Boys Minors 3rd

Buck 38, Spurs 11: The Bucks Boys Minors played aggressive defense creating several steals and corralling numerous rebounds to beat the Spurs 38-11 in week two. Stephen Kraninger led the Bucks scoring, while Quinn Farrell, Adam Campbell, Tyler John, Trenton Kelly, Matthew Torres & Stephen Zaborowski provided the additional fire power needed to win the game.

Westphal Photography 21, Sonics 19: Despite 17 points from Jack Sirek, the Sonics were unable to hold off a strong last period rally by Westphal Photography.

Westphal Photography outscored the Sonics 10-2 in the last quarter to win an exciting game, 21-19. Jordan Canady led Westphal Photography with 8 points and outstanding defense. Jacob Schroeder and Ethan Kondo added 4 points apiece. Lucas Gates scored the winning basket with less than two minutes remaining.

Girls Minors 3rd

Holming Fan & Fabrication LLC 12, New Berlin Fire 10: The Fire jumped out to an early 6-0 lead only to see Holming Fan & Fabrication LLC storm back. Sarah Meleski started the scoring for Holming Fan & Fabrication LLC and led all scorers with 6 points 12 steals and 8 rebounds. Raechel Anderson chipped in 2 points and led the team with 13 rebounds and 2 blocks. Hannah Bukowski and Regan Andrus ignited the offense with 2 assists 4 steals and 1 assist and 3 steals respectively. Brittany Jacobi finished the scoring with the last 4 points which including the game winner in OT. Jacobi also added 8 steals. The defensive play of the second half turned the Fire into smoke sparked by Mariah Klemann's 5 steals alone in the second half which ignited the run. Domenica Nudi, Katie Turner and Maddie Nordstrom anchored the defense for Holming Fan & Fabrication LLC by blowing out second chance baskets by the fire.

Boys Minors 4th

Trail Blazers 32, New Berlin Police 16: The Trail Blazer's team defense propelled them to their second win of the season. Matthew Winter, Michael Krupo, Adam Weber, Jonathon Jones and Alex Schiller scored 10, 8, 8, 4 and 2 points respectively to lead the offensive attack.

Girls Juniors

New Berlin Police 32, Westphal Photography 18: The New Berlin Police extended their record to 2-0 with a victory over Westphal Photography. The final score was Police 32, Westphal 18. The Police used good rebounding and defense to pull ahead in the second half. Brittany Krzyzanowski and Jenna Waligorski were outstanding under the boards. Nicole Pandl and Sasha Stojanovich used aggressive defensive play to start many fast breaks. Holly Plazak and Taylor Rickard contributed strong guard play and combined for 20 points. Colleen Haack, Nessa Stojanovich, and Ericka Ward played well at both ends of the floor, and contributed a combined 12 points.

NBAA Game Report
Week #2
Saturday December 9, 2006

Tri City National Bank 32, New Berlin Eagles 10: The Tri City National Bank's Cassie Majinski, Alyssa Moy and Kia Richards played tough defense in the guard position. Mariah Kastner, Allison Weitekamp and Marie Bartels were all tough down low and scored off of offensive rebounds. With a rebound from Lauren Lichtenhahn, the Tri City National Bank team went on from its half-time 16-2 lead and beat the Eagles 32 to 10. Top scores were Alyssa Moy with sixteen and Madeline Muchenberger with eight points.

New Berlin Eagles Red 38, New Berlin Fire 8: Amber Cywinski led the team with 20 points, followed by Alison Kuhni with 12 points. Great defense from Ellie Feuling and Brianna Hamerold. Great rebounding by Caitlyn Mari. Super hustle by Meridith Cameron, Holly Kritter, and Miranda Rakers.

Boys Majors

Nuggets 61, Magic 60: This was an exciting contest from beginning to end! The Magic held a commanding 14 point lead in the first half; but, the Nuggets dominated on both ends of the court after halftime to win this in the closing seconds. Kyle Goldsmith was unstoppable with 25 points. There was aggressive defense played by Andy Ziefle and Stuart Van Pelt; and, excellent ball handling and numerous steals by Theo Sessler. Corey Wacholz had a key steal and bucket in the final minute; and Jordan McKeon hit a clutch short jumper with seconds remaining for the winning points.