

NBAA Game Report
Week #8
Saturday February 3, 2007

Boys Minors 3rd

Bucks 27, Drydon Equipment 19: The Bucks overcame a 5 point first half deficit to beat Drydon Equipment 27-19. Stephen Kraninger and Adam Campbell led the Bucks offense. Quinn Farrell, Tyler John and Trenton Kelly led the strong team defense stopping the opponent's advances and creating turnovers. Adam Neunenschwander & Tommy Ostrenga had several key steals. Matthew Torres was active on both sides of the court. Adam Campbell led the Bucks scoring with 12 points. Quinn Farrell added 7, Stephen Kraninger (6) and Trenton Kelly (2).

Westphal Photography 20, New Berlin Eagles 2: Andy Stachnik led Westphal Photography with six points and Ethan Kondo and Jacob Schroeder added four points apiece. Joey Brisk played his most aggressive game of the year while grabbing many rebounds. Trey Fredrickson and Davis Bull played strong defensively and rebounded well. Nick Schaefer continues to show great hustle by diving after loose balls and leading the team in floor burns.

Sonics 33, Spurs 5: The Sonics played stingy defense and defeated the Spurs. Jake Rastas, Matthew Cavanaugh, and Jack Sirek each scored 10 points and shared the ball nicely. Ryan Majinski chipped in with 2 points and Austin Whittlow added 1 point. Alexey Bickelhaupt, Daniel Roback, Andy Schrom, and Zachary Kasun all played inspired basketball.

Girls Minors 3rd

New Berlin Eagles 20, Magic 16: The Eagles and Magic played a very competitive game this week, with the Eagles handing the Magic their first loss of the season. Both teams came out aggressively from the start. Rachel Beilfuss, Mary Bieser and Brittany Samorajaski combined for the 16 Magic points on offense, while Vasi Katris, Katie Sotiros, Julia Catalano and Josie Hammes contributed to the Magic's 22 rebounds and 13 steals. But, the Eagles prevailed and held on to win 20-16. Great job to all the girls' efforts and sportsmanship in this late season contest.

Boys Minors 4th

Wizards 46, Clippers 10: The Wizards improved to 6-2 with an entire team effort. Scoring baskets were Michael Barth, Jarod Clark, Peter Diamantopoulos, Eray Erman, Nick Potrzebowski, Payton Quirk, Joe Tadych and Quinn Thompson. Leading the way with 17 rebounds was Quinn Thompson. Michael Barth had 4 assists. All team members played well defensively

NBAA Game Report
Week #8
Saturday February 3, 2007

Girls Juniors

Tri-City National Bank 32, Nuggets 17: Cassie Majinski, Marie Bartels, Madeline Muchenberger, Allison Weitekamp and Alyssa Moy shared the scoring for Tri City. Allison and Alyssa scored double digit points and Mariah Kastner, Kia Richards, Lauren Lichtenhahn and Stephanie Seymour provided excellent defense and rebounding. Both teams played well and provided an entertaining game. Although the Nuggets had more shot attempts, the Tri City National's beat the Nuggets 32 to 17.