

NBAA Soccer Week 5 Newspaper Reports

Co-Ed Tots

Avalanche 16, Dynamo 1: It was another win for the Avalanche with every player on the team scoring at least one goal. Katie Melski, Lizzy Price, and Zachary Zuehlke all played great defense. The whole team gave it their all

Boys Minis

Galaxy 0, Quakes 5: Paul Brochhausen scored a hat trick for the second consecutive week. Completing the scoring were Grady Davis and Jared Henrichs. Both boys recorded their first goal of the year. Ryan David and Zach Maly both recorded a scoreless half at goalie.

Hammerheads 4, Piranhas 4: The Piranhas and the Hammerheads played an exciting game that was close the whole way and ended in a tie. Eric Dreyer, Will Roder, Eli Hoelke, and Jaeden Phillips each scored a goal. The Piranhas played their best "passing" game of the season with multiple players making good passes to teammates to move the ball up the field.

Fusion (New Berlin Police) 11, Kings 0: Team Fusion showed great effort today winning the contest short-handed. Ty Deckert scored six first half goals and combined with Bill Dowling as goalie to shut out the opposition. All the boys got in the scoring action today with goals from Adam Jashinsky, Jacob Leonardelli, Christopher Louey and two from Bill Dowling.

Girls Minis

Avalanche 1, Express (Subway) 9: The Express got their 4th win of the season Scoring for Express were Brynn Flanders (2 goals), Ansley Antfinger (2 goals) and Michelle DeRome (5 goals). Backed up the offense was the solid goaltending by Melissa DeRome and Taylor Rawski.

Blitz (New Berlin Fire) 5, Comets 5: Abigail Schimmels scored the first two goals for the Blitz followed with single goals by Abbie Gosetti, Emily Moore and Kiara McKowen. The Comets countered every goal scored by the Blitz with goals of their own. The two Blitz goalies, Anna McIntyre and Kendyl Froberg kept the game close with many shots defended. The result was a tie game. The Comets were led offensively by 3 goals from Morgan Goff, 1 goal each by Reagan Raposa and Mia Meister. The Blitz's goalie stopped a breakaway shot on goal in the final minute of the game that would have been the game winner for The Comets.

Dynamo (New Berlin Police), Dynasty (New Berlin Eagles): With game time temperatures hovering near 42 degrees and snow flurries throughout, the Dynasty dominated the pitch on offense with 18 shots and 6 goals. Lauren Stephens led the way with 4 goals and Kayla Kane pitched in 2 goals. Kylie Rosewitz, Jessica Kemstra, Diana Metz and Anabella Thiel played good position, hustled back to make plays on defense and made key passes to set up the goals. Jaydn McRae played strong on defense, sweeping away numerous rushes throughout the game. Sadye Froschmayer made 7 saves to shut out the Dynamo in the first half. Lauren Stephens made 4 saves in the 2nd half to seal the victory and give the Dynasty a 2 game winning streak.

Blast 3, Cougars 2: Even the cold weather could not stop the Blast from staying hot in girls minis league play. The Blast won another game by defeating the Cougars in a close game by a score of 3-2. Emma Hammarstrom scored two goals while Kylie Lemberger scored the other goal. Tough defense was played by Grace Soiney and Andrea Kuhne. The goalie play was split by three defenders, including Lauren Bennett, Kuhne and Lily Wergin. The Blast played excellent on both sides of the ball to stay undefeated on the year.

Boys Juniors

Storm 13, Surge (New Berlin Eagles) 0: The Storm is off to a perfect 5-0 record with a 13-0 win over the Surge. The offense was lead by Mitchell Primus with 7 goals. Jack Johansson had a season high 3 goals, Aaron Reinhardsten had 2 goals and Dominic Deluca also scored a goal. Brandon Antfinger, Zachary Brandt, Ray Glass, Michael Grinker, Brian Li and Austin Engelhardt played great defense while preserving our 2nd straight shutout.

Wave 8, Wizards (New Berlin Fire) 2: A great scoring game for the Wave. Greg Lawton and Ross Wick played great in goal. Matt Szpytma and Tyler DuCharme each had 3 goals and Justice Dodd and Greg Lawton added a goal a piece. Zack Hackbarth, Nick Rydlewicz and Mason Short had a great all-around game. Zach Lucas and Eray Erman played outstanding defense. The whole team played very well as a unit.

Girls Juniors

Impact (New Berlin Fire) 8, Tornados (New Berlin Police) 2: The defensive teams did a superb job during the first half and kept the score 0-0 for the majority of the time. It was the Impact's Abby Delain who made the first strike with a goal off an assist from Felicia Ainsworth. Once the goal line had been broken the Impact's offensive team followed it up with another 3 goals from Trina Farry, Amanda Collette and Taylor Stocks off of passing assists from Alexa Billstrom, Rachel Rasmussen and Kayla Kugel. The Impact's Defensive team of Brianna King, Lizzy Lovdal, Taylor Stocks and Jayme Ewens were instrumental in driving the ball out of harms way along with their goalie Alyssa Rawski, who had 3 saves and some very big punts. The first half ended at 4-0. The Tornado's Ester scored the first goal of the second half and also drove in another ball later in the game for the Tornado's two goals. While Impact's offensive continued to work as a team and moving the ball down the field and into scoring area. Trina Farrey and Rachel Rasmussen each scored a goal off assists from Kayla Kugel and Amanda Collette, and Abby Delain had two goals with assists from Taylor Stocks and Lily Gerbensky to end the game 8 - 2. Special mention goes to goalie Jayme Ewens who hustled and dove on many balls picking up 4 saves. Great job girls. You rock!

Invaders 7, Lightning (New Berlin Eagles) 2: Lightning does strike twice, but Invaders still Win 7 to 2. The Invaders survived two early Lightning goals to go on to win 7 to 2. Although the Invaders jumped out with two mid-half goals, the Lightning struck twice to tie the match. However, the Invaders started to distance themselves from the Lightning by taking 30 shots-on-goal and were able to rain in 5 more goals. Hannah Plockelman led all scoring with 3 goals with a quad of Invaders, Anna Evans, Cayley McKowen, Jenna Mielke and Becky Wyco each recording one. Mielke and Wyco both registered their first goals of the year. Evans and Sophie Gosetti had a great passing day with each recording 3 assist followed by Plockelman with one. Lauren Meyers led the Invaders' defensive effort stopping 15 Lightning drives followed by Jenna Mielke, Hannah Plockelman and Becky Wyco each with 10; Alexandra Langston with 9; Anna Evans with 7; both Lily Berg and Cayley McKowen with 5; Raven Stiller with 3; Anastasia Hoeg with 2 and Sophie Gosetti with one. Anastasia Hoeg, Hannah Plockelman, Lili Berg and Becky Wyco all played strong in goal with 8, 6, 2 and 1 saves respectively.

Boys Majors

Strikers 3, Thunder 1: The Strikers finally put one in the winning column as Will Hedges scored 3 goals and Justin Fredrickson and Mike King played lock-down defense.