

NBAA Game Report
Week #5
Saturday October 3, 2008

Coed Tots

Cougars 8, Dynamo 6: Andy Braun scored two goals, one with an assist from Megan Church and Matt Braun kicked a goal with an assist from Andrew Lettner. Andrew Lettner scored 3 goals with assists from Eric Western, Thomas Goodspeed and Rebekah Bonin.

For team Dynamo, Jake Biallas had 3 goals and Camylle Lapp had 2 goals. Zach Maly added 3 saves.

Avalanche 2, New Berlin Police Crossfire 12: The Crossfire played their best game of the year as they won 12 -2. Devin Rodgers scored his first goal of the season to spark the Crossfire. Andrea Kuhne had her best game of the year as she scored three goals including one from a corner kick that excited the crowd. Other scorers were Adam Joda, Colin Miller, and Benjamin Johnson.

Chill 10, Eclipse 20: Team Eclipse was given an emotional lift today with Brinley Stackhouse breaking out for three goals. Matt Schultz and Cassidy Kroupa each recorded two goals. Ty Deckert recorded multiple assists with centering passes along with scoring thirteen goals of his own. Spencer Anderson and Anna MacIntyre showed great effort on defense.

Blitz 20, Express 10: The Blitz played extremely well, passing the ball to each other as if they were a high school soccer team. All players contributed in scoring. Jacob Kuglitsch, Max Meskin, Kyle Bengston, Madison Frey, Mayra Guerrero, Dominic Kavalary and Gabe Seifert all scored goals in this game. The team played fabulous and was extremely excited to have all contributed to the great score of 20 goals.

Blast 5, New Berlin Fire Fever 10: The Fever displayed outstanding teamwork and fought hard for a tough victory against a well-matched team. Kellan Short and Megan Lehsten made some excellent plays while anchoring the defensive movement. The scoring attack came from Will Roder, John Ganzer, Joe Jarecki and Alexa Jarecki.

Girls Minis

Storm 8, Tornados 0: The Storm blew past the Tornados 8-0. The defense was outstanding by Goalkeepers Hannah Kroupa, Kenzie McKowen and Lily Filber posting their first shutout. Great saves by Lauren Bennett, LuLu Stephens and Kendyl Froberg helped seal the victory. Emma Wergin, Grace Soiney and Kenna Petery each had multiple goals for the winners in another well played game. The team is really playing well together and their teamwork has really shown through this season.

Stampede 4, Wave 1: Playing aggressive offense the Wave jumped to a fast 1-0 lead. The Stampede defense stiffened and with great passing scored on a goal by Jenna Bachmann and two by Taylor Prei in the first half and one more by Abbie Gosetti in the second half. Outstanding goal tending by Claire Ahrens and Taylor Prei along with great defensive effort by Aubrey Luccas, Grace Ahrens, Jessica Kemstra, and Grace Polczynski ensured a 4-1 victory for the Stampede.

NBAA Game Report
Week #5
Saturday October 3, 2008

Boys Minors

Avalanche 7, New Berlin Fire Blast 1: Today's game was the best over all performance from team Avalanche! Logan Podlesnik started us out with a nice hard, high kick to get us on the board. Jordan Arthur followed that up with a long goal from about 30 feet away, and later had an awesome assist as he shot for the goal and Caleb Evans was able to touch it in for an easy score. Brandon Antlfinger was able to weave in and out of traffic to work his way down field, then topped it off with a powerful goal. Finishing the scoring was Dominic DeLuca, who had three goals today, including a blast as the goalie, which sailed over everyone's head and in for a goal! Luke Osvatic was unbeatable as our main defender, helping to hold the Blast to one goal. Noah Wiley and Jack Gress were also on their game, helping to move the ball towards the goal! Great job Avalanche!!

Girls Minors

New Berlin Fire Fever 14, Phantoms 0: All of the girls gave another great effort this week. Anna Evans led the team with 10 goals. Emily Ehrmann and Natalie Lichtenhahn scored the other goals. Mary Moczulewski and Felicia Ainsworth also had stellar performances

New Berlin Police Force, Fury 0: Even though the Force had only seven players today, they recorded their first shut out of the season on awesome goalkeeping by Taylor Deckert and Camille Sem, and solid defense by Madeline Soiney. The offense was also on fire with goals by Kelly Gottschalk, Heather Petersen, Andrea Stephens and Katie Dowling.

Fusion 5, Galaxy 5: The undefeated Fusion was stunned by the Galaxy, a team they had easily beaten earlier in the year. The Galaxy scored first and then reined in the Fusion at the end of the game to harness them 5 to 5. Anastasia Hoeg led the Galaxy in scoring with 3 goals followed by Lilianna Berg with 2. Lilianna Berg also led the team with 2 assist while Alexa Billstrom and Kayla Kugel each added 1. The much improved midfield play by the Galaxy allowed the Galaxy to take the same number of shots on goal as the Fusion, something that didn't happen in the first game. Leading the Galaxy in killing Fusion Drives were Mya Sparacino with 28 midfield stops followed by Anastasia Hoeg with 22, Lilianna Berg with 17, Alexa Billstrom with 7, Trina Farrey with 5, Kayla Kugel with 4, and Danielle Reynolds with 3. Danielle Reynolds led the team with 10 saves in goal followed by Anastasia Hoeg with 9.

Girls Juniors

New Berlin Fire Lightning 3, MM Insurance Sting 4: The Sting reversed the current and shocked the undefeated Lightning 4 to 3. The Sting had lost earlier in the season to the Lightning who struck quickly running up 5 unanswered goals in the first 15 minutes of the match and then went on to hold off the Sting 7 to 6. The Lightning again struck first and went into the half with a 2 to 0 lead. But this time the halftime adjustments carried the Sting past the Lightning resulting in the 4 to 3 win. Megan Misiewicz scored all 4 goals in the comeback with Elizabeth

NBAA Game Report
Week #5
Saturday October 3, 2008

Geoffrey, Kassidy Harenda and Courtney Stephens all serving up an assist. The Sting midfield play showed a huge improvement limiting the Lightning to just 17 shots on goal, down from 36 in the first game. Elyse Hoeg held off the strong Lightning legs by recording 14 saves. Courtney Stephens led the team in grounding Lightning drives with 25 midfield stops followed by Megan Misiewicz with 21; Elizabeth Geoffrey with 6; Kassidy Harenda with 5; Morgan Benjamin-Ede with 3; Katie Radewahn, Mackenzie Reynolds, Raven Stiller and Carly Uselmann each with 1. The Sting took 14 shots on goal with Alexandra Maniscalco and Caroline Seymour being instrumental in keeping drives to the goal going.