Girls Minors

Impact (New Berlin Police) 5, Fury 5: The Impact led off with a 2-0 lead in the first half, with both goals made by Shannon Hegeman. Maggie Majewski as goalie for the Impact in the first half, held the score at 2-1 for the Impact. Great plays and passing by forwards Bethany Tostrud, Abigail Szukalski, Jenny Kilps and Ashleigh Owens, helped keep the score moving forward. Our power house defenders were Maria Carson, Melissa Hoffman and Elizabeth Liverman, their performance helped us to achieve goals in the second half by Maggie Majewski, Taylor Williamson and to tie the score Sammy Yocks. Our goalie in the second half, Chloe Yocks, made sensational plays to hold the score at 5 to 5. It was a very exciting game, with back and forth scoring by both teams. With the score tied 4 to 4 and a minute left to play, the Fury scored to take the lead at 5 to 4. The next few moves were a battle up and down the field and with only 20 seconds left on the clock, the Impact dug deep, and tied the score at 5 to 5. Scorers for the Fury were Kayleigh May with 2 goals, Abbey Delain with 1, Rebecca Dummer with 1 and Rachel Rasmussen with 1 goal.

Girls Juniors

Strikers 3, Quake 2: Teamwork and passing was the key to the Strikers' victory over the Quake. Brianna Kesler scored 2 first half goals, off assists from Elizabeth Owens and Kristin Sperka. Elizabeth Owens scored the game-winning goal, assisted by Brianna Kesler. The Strikers' defense was anchored by Lia Morici, who kept the Quake offense away from the goal most of the game. Nikki McDermott also played well on the defensive side. Katie Sotiros made 5 saves in her outstanding debut as goal keeper.
