

NBAA Game Report
Week #3
Saturday September 27, 2008

Coed Tots

Eclipse 18, Cougars 5: Once again a beautiful day of weather for NBAA Soccer. Team Eclipse was paced by leading goal scorer Ty Deckert for the third straight week, scoring eleven goals today. The big news of the day was a break out performance by Cassidy Kroupa who tallied four goals!! The defense of Spencer Anderson and Anna MacIntyre helped keep the Cougars off balance. Also scoring for the winning team was Alex Hrdlicka, Matt Schultz, and Brinley Stackhouse.

New Berlin Fire Fever 13, Chill 7: The Fever notched a tough victory over the Chill with a 13 - 7 score. Kellan Short scored his first goal of the season and Alexa Jarecki, Joe Jarecki, John Ganzer, and Megan Lehsten added to the offensive attack. Kate Mikna and Will Roder provided nice assists on several of the goals. The team also had some strong defensive plays during the game by diverting some scoring chances by the Chill.

Blitz 11, New Berlin Police Crossfire 7: Great defense was played by the Blitz as they came out early and took a 6-0 lead. Crossfire fought back hard as they were led in scoring by Andrea Kuhne and Adam Joda with two goals each.

Dynamo 4, Blast 4: It was a hard fought game between two equally talented teams that ended in a 4 to 4 tie. For team Dynamo, Kylie Lemberger scored twice, and Jake Biallas and Camylle Lapp each scored once. Zach Maly led team Dynamo with 5 saves.

Boys Minis

New Berlin Fire Lightning 10, Galaxy 5: The Lightning was lead in goals by Benjamin Lapp, Dalton Torosian, Noah Birenbaum, Bennett Connolly, Tommy Kuhn and Alex Klahorst. Strong as goalies were Bennett Connolly and Parker Frey. Playing good solid defense was Alex Kutschenreuter, Jordan Stehovsky and Benjamin Lapp.

Girls Minis

Storm 5, Thunder 4: A well played game by both teams. The Storm got multiple goals from LuLu Stephens, Kenna Petery and Grace Soiney, who scored the winning goal. Both teams played great and showed great teamwork.

Stampede 2, Voltage 8: The game was a great battle of defenses. Jenna Bachmann of the Stampede blocked 5 shots on goal in the first half and Aubrey Luccas of the Stampede allowed no goals in the second half. The Voltage girls allowed only one goal per half by playing solid team defense. Taylor Prei scored the only 2 goals of the game resulting in a 2-0 victory for the Stampede.

Boys Minors

Avalanche 8, Crossfire 2: It was a great team effort this week by the Avalanche. Caleb Evans did a great job scoring two goals in the first half, and not allowing a single goal as goalie in the second half! The team has been working on their passing, and it showed in the second half when Derek Schaper connected with Luke Osvatic who crushed the ball in for a quick goal. Jordan Arthur and Jack Gress each put in a pair of goals to give us a comfortable lead. Logan Podlesnik finished up the scoring with a hard kick, which took a good bounce off the left post and bounced right in to seal the game.

NBAA Game Report
Week #3
Saturday September 27, 2008

Girls Minors

Fusion 8, New Berlin Fire Fever 1: It was a tough loss for the Fever. All team members put forth a great effort. Anna Evans scored the goal. Natalie Lichtenhahn and Hannah Winter played well too.

Congratulations to Erica Buechel and Eme Cameron for scoring their first goals! Fusion started out strong and fast, the girl's team work was excellent! Ashlin Soto, Kelly Ann Sotiros and Radhika Dua played every position with speed and kept the ball in play for a goal. Katie Milosevich and Karlee Anderson kept taking the ball to the net with three goals each. The defender Kayla Juds returned the ball to the other side of the field to make the goals possible. Great job girls!

New Berlin Police Force 4, Phantoms 1: The Force continued its winning streak on more goals by Katie Dowling, Andrea Stephens and Heather Peterson. The defense was anchored by the stingy goal keeping of Madeline Soiney and Kate Potrzebowski and our game ball winner Kelly Gottschalk.

Boys Juniors

New Berlin Police Express 5, Eclipse 2: The Express came out aggressive and scored 4 goals within the first 10 minutes of the game and held on to win 5 to 2. Goals were scored by Ryan Majinski, Drew Spadaro, Nick Schaefer, Matthew Cavanaugh and Jake Buraczynski with key assists from Nick Schaefer, Kyle Miller and Matthew Cavanaugh. The consistent lane play, passing and teamwork was impressive and our defense held strong throughout the game, supported by excellent goalie play from Jake Buraczynski and Torry Mingari. Both teams were insistent on moving the ball up the field and it was shown by the physical play throughout the game.

Girls Juniors

MM Insurance Sting 6, Save Your Back Salt Kixx 3: Sting out kick the Kixx 6 to 3!!

The Sting kicked 3 early goals to lead 4 to 3 at half and then distanced themselves with two late goals to out kick the Kixx 6 to 3. Courtney Stephens led all scoring with 4 goals followed by Megan Misiewicz with 1 and Raven Stiller, who tallied her first goal of the season. Carly Uselmann served up 4 assists with Elyse Hoeg and Courtney Stephens each serving up 1 assist. Goalie play was again outstanding stopping 33 shots on goal. Elyse Hoeg recorded 26 saves followed by Courtney Stephens with 7 saves. The Sting's midfield play continues to improve with Courtney Stephens stopping 15 Kixx drives followed by Elizabeth Geoffrey stopping 14; Cassidy Harenda and Raven Stiller each with 13; Katie Radewahn, Caroline Seymour and Carly Uselmann each with 8; Elyse Hoeg

NBAA Game Report
Week #3
Saturday September 27, 2008

stopping 7; Megan Misiewicz stopping 6 , Mackenzie Reynolds stopping 5, Morgan Benjamin-Ede stopping 4, and Alexandra Maniscalco stopping 2.

Boys Majors

New Berlin Police Spitfire 10, Rage 3: The game between the Spitfire and the Rage, although 3-2 at halftime, was won by the Spitfire 10-3. The offense was led by Matthew Castelaz with 4 goals and Dakota Payne with several goals including a perfect header from a corner kick. The defense was lead by the great goalkeeping of Vinson "the claw" Mulvey.

Girls Majors

Thunder 3, Stampede 0: Elizabeth Schoepke and Samantha Roberts played excellent in the goal. Great defense was provided by Samantha Lewiston, Sydney Cheung and Jenna Lange. Taylor Crubaugh, Erica Ward and Cassie Majinski each scored one goal. Nicole Bellford, Elana Bartman and Courtney Crubaugh played well in the midfield. Dana Doyle, Katie Lien and Allie Lodermeier played well at forward.